

TO ALL KNOWN CLIENTS AND CREDITORS

2 December 2015

Dear Sirs

Boston Prime Limited ("the Company") – In Special Administration

Further to our previous communication, on 30 November 2015 the High Court of Justice in England and Wales made an order in relation to the distribution procedure for client money held by the Company. A formal notice of the order is enclosed. Alternatively, the order and the enclosed notice can be viewed and downloaded at www.rollingsoliver.com/bostonprime.

If you consider that you may have a client money claim-you should ensure that you submit full details of your claim and all relevant supporting documentation to the Special Administrators in accordance with the order and the attached notice by 5pm (London time) on the last date for proving, being 5 January 2016. You do not need to resubmit details of your claim or supporting documentation for your claim if you have previously submitted these to the Special Administrators in accordance with their instructions.

If you do not consider yourself to have a client money claim you need not submit anything further at this time.

Answers to certain Frequently Asked Questions dated 2 December 2015 are given on the dedicated webpage referred to above. These answers are a summary of certain useful information only. They are not a substitute for reading the enclosed notice and the order. They are also not a substitute for taking advice from a legal professional such as a solicitor or barrister.

Should you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours faithfully
For Boston Prime Limited
